Microsoft Dynamics ERP in the Cloud Live Simulcast Experiences, Expectations and Advice from Tribridge Concerto Cloud ServicesSM for companies considering Cloud ERP

Tampa, Fla. (Nov. 1, 2011) – Concerto Cloud Services will host a live simulcast Nov. 17 from 2:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. EST (with live Q&A) to assist business leaders considering implementing or upgrading Microsoft Dynamics ERP systems in the cloud. The simulcast is designed to provide attendees with a real-world view of moving ERP systems to the cloud, accurate cost and timing expectations of a cloud-based ERP deployment and a customized ERP cloud implementation game plan.

Attendees will learn real stories behind customers that have moved ERP systems into the cloud including readiness plans, ROI requirements and major milestones. In addition, Microsoft and Concerto Cloud Services executives will share what to expect from a timing, resource, capital investment and business value perspective. Finally, participants have the opportunity to walk away with an actionable ERP cloud implementation game plan and receive a free customized assessment for Microsoft Dynamics ERP in the cloud.

Featured guests will include Paul Stals, VP of Operations at Valet Waste; Greg Pierce, Managing Director at Concerto Cloud Services; and Joel Minnick, US Senior Product Manager for Private Cloud Solutions at Microsoft. Visit concertocloud.com/simulcast to register or to learn more about the live simulcast.
